TASTING NOTES:

We have toyed with the idea of making a Rose for some time, but for a range of reasons, including obtaining the right quality fruit, we have not done so.

Produced from Shiraz grapes we have made a well balanced dry Rose, rather than an ultra sweet wine that has previously been the normal style for this wine.

The trend towards a more serious, quality Rose, very much on the dry side, has been more evident in the past few years, and this is the style which we prefer and have produced.

A fresh, crisp wine with berry fruit flavours and served chilled is ideal for summer drinking with a wide range of foods, or as a refreshing wine on its own.
